

II SUMMATIVE EVALUATION 2017-18

STD: VII

SUB: GEOGRAPHY

MARKS: 20

DATE: 12.4.18

Time :- 2hrs

I. Fill in the blanks :-

(3)

1. If the population and the necessary amenities increase on a large scale, the urban areas grow into _____ cities. (wadi/ metropolitan)
2. _____ settlement is the first step towards a stable life in human history. (rural/urban)
3. If the contour lines are closer to each other, the slope is _____ (steep / gentle)

II. Say whether the statement is True or false. If false, correct the statement. (4)

1. Contour lines join places with the different altitude on a map
2. Houses are too close together in scattered settlement.
3. People along the seacoast, engaged in fishing are called adivasi.
4. Contour maps are useful for mountaineers.

III Name the following :-

(2)

1. Shops are located on both the sides of the road
2. There money and time is saved by living on the farm.

IV . Answer in one sentence each :- (3)

1. Where nucleated settlements are found?
2. What do the contour lines on the map represent?
3. How is contour map useful for defence officers?

V. Give geographical reasons for the following :- (any two) (4)

1. Contour maps are useful for farmers.
2. Rural settlements are transformed into urban settlement.
3. Forest dwellers or tribal people have settled in forest areas.

VI. Answer briefly:- (any two) (4)

1. What are the characteristics of Linear settlements? (Any four points)
 2. How can the distribution of the height and the land form in a region be shown?
 3. Explain how human settlements have evolved?
-